LOSS OF A FINGER BY BRIDGE WORKMAN

Chas. Jones, a Prisoner Hurt in an Accident Friday.

Slight accident at the bridge work Friday afternoon resulted in the loss of a finger for Chas. Jones, one of the negro workmen. One of the pumps was being moved to a new position and while the work was in progress, a part of the bank of the excavation caved in, dropping a Mexican into the water below. Jones jumped a crowbar under the pump in an effort to prevent it from falling even on the Mexican and Supt. Ryan also grabbed hold of the pump to try and hold it back. Jones was paying more attention to the safety of the Mexican than he was his own and as he pushed on the crowbar, he yelled for the Mexican to get out of the way. The weight of the pump proved too much for the strength of the men holding it, however, and it toppled over. Not until the Mexican was safely out of the way thought the pump, as it fell, caught one of the negro's little fingers between the crowbar and the cylinder and snipped it off just above the first joint. Supt. Ryan was thrown about ten feet out into the excavation into several feet of water but came up with no more serious injuries than a few scratches. The negro was hurried to town and taken to Dr. Alexander. The remaining end of the finger was so badly crushed that the doctor decided that amputation was necessary and the injured member was accordingly removed at the first joint. Jones will be held up for a while as the result of the accident.

GOES TO GOLDFIELD.

Jas. Goodwin left yesterday for Goldfield, taking with him a small force of men to do some assessment work on claims that he and his brothers hold in that locality.

ANOTHER DRESSED BEEF.

Another dressed beef is now displayed at the Pioneer market and the public is invited to guess at its weight. After the other contest, several of the local cattlemen urged that an especially large steer belonging to Fenton Jones be dressed for a New Year's display. This was done and the beef hung up yesterday. Like the others, it has never been on a pair of scales and no one will know its weight until ten o'clock tomorrow when it will be weighed. A first prize of ten dollars and a second prize of five dollars are offered for those who come nearest to its correct weight. The steer is said to be the largest ever butchered in Tempe.

Gas in the stomach comes from food which has fermented. Get rid of this badly digested food as quickly as possible if you would avoid a bilious attack; HERBINE is the remedy you need. It cleanses and strengthens the stomach, liver and bowels, and restores energy and cheerfulness. Price 25c. Sold by Elvey & Hulet's Pharmacy.

BOUGHT GOOD CATTLE.

J. E. McClain attended a sale on the north side of the river day before yesterday and purchased about twenty head of Jersey cattle. Most of them are registered stock and the largest part of them came from the Ozark Herd.

RETURN HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stewart and children, who have been spending a few days with friends and relatives, left last evening for their home in Norfolk, Cal.

CANAL PICTURES.

An illustrated lecture, with moving pictures of the work at the Panama Canal, was the feature attraction of Friday evening's show at the opera house. The lecture and the views were both highly interesting and instructive and gave one some idea of the magnitude of the work in progress.

NOT STRANGERS HERE.

Several members of the Jack Benjamin company which presents the play "The Belle of Richmond" at the opera house tomorrow evening are not strangers here but have played in Tempe before. Jack Benjamin, the owner and manager of the company and Grace Hamilton, as well as one or two others of the troupe were formerly here with the Della Pringle Company. The Benjamin company carries fourteen people and may possibly play here Tuesday night as well as tomorrow night.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT.

John Jensen lost one of his best milk cows in an odd way a couple of days ago. The cow was feeding at a hay stack with some horses. It hooked at one of the horses and as the animal dodged the cow's horns, it kicked, the blow striking the bovine squarely in the forehead and killing it as promptly as a butcher's ax would have done.

DRUNKEN INDIANS.

Two Indians were found by Justice Carr yesterday and were fined six dollars each. Common with Indians, they had the wherewithal and promptly dug up the cash. They were badly intoxicated when they got off a train from Phoenix the day before and were arrested by Constable Estrada.

FEAR HIGH WATER.

Work is being rushed as fast as possible just now on the bridge. It is hoped that the work on the pier now almost completed in the river bed can be finished and the machinery moved to higher ground before the river comes up any.

Lame back may come from overwork, cold settled in the muscles of the back, or from disease. In the two former cases the right remedy is BAL-LARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. It should be rubbed in thoroughly over the affected part, the relief will be prompt and satisfactory. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Elvey & Hulet's pharmacy.

MESA

OUTLOOK GOOD FOR NEXT YEAR'S BUSINESS

The Republican correspondent has talked with a number of the real estate dealers of Mesa, and all are confident that the year 1912 will see a great change for the better in the Salt River valley, and especially in the Mesa section. During the past few months there has been a wonderful improvement in the rural sections south and southeast of town. The former desert is now all taken up for farms beyond the town limits and the surface is covered with improved homesteads and homesteads undergoing the evolution necessary to reach the productive stage. Many of the new farm houses are commodious and of modern construction and up-to-date in appearance, costing from $1500 to $5000. Within the reclamation area, miles of laterals have been constructed and the land owners have planted and are planting large tracts to alfalfa and grain.

In town, business of all kinds is good, and there are a number of new buildings, completed and in course of construction. Little town property is being sold; very little being on the market. Those who own homes are improving their holdings and are not offering for sale. Subdivisions of lots are being disposed of, bringing in new residents without losing the old ones. The hotels are constantly filled with strangers, a large portion of them being home-seekers. Some remain, others promise to return, while of course many are simply looking over the country, saying nothing as to their intentions. Jesse Kelly, who is largely interested here and who has exceptional opportunities to know the conditions of the real estate market and general outlook, says he is confident that the coming year will witness a wonderful improvement, not in Mesa alone but throughout the entire country.

IMPROVEMENT OF ROADS.

A well-known Southsider wants to know if there is a prospect that more attention will be paid to the south side roads, when the new officers take charge. He believes Mesa has not had her share of the county money for the improvement of the county highways. If the mesa has been apportioned to the Mesa section, he questions whether the money has been wisely used.

It has been expended to the best advantage. It is certain that the roads are in need of a great deal of improvement and the South side pays enough taxes to insure a reasonable degree of attention upon the part of the officials having the road work in hand.

GIBSON-McGEE.

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. Gibson, on West First avenue at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Mr. Joseph Arthur McGee and Miss Leona Gibson being the contracting parties. Only the family were present. Justice Irwin performed the ceremony.

WRECKED THE MACHINE.

A party composed of O. M. Tufts, Miss Grace Tufts, of Chicago, and Miss Nettie Tufts and Miss Etta Norton, of Phoenix, were returning from a visit to Roosevelt yesterday, when their automobile ran into a ditch, spilling out the passengers and putting the machine out of commission. The stranded party was picked up by "Bud" Norton, who brought them to Mesa in his auto. From here they went by train to Phoenix. None of the party was at all injured.

MESA WEATHER.

Maximum temperature.....53
Minimum.....28
Precipitation, 10 inch.
Direction of wind, southeast.
Forecast for Sunday, fair.

LOOKING AFTER HIS PROPERTY.
P. R. Hughes, who is the sub agent at the Gila crossing Indian agency, with the title of "Farmer," was in Mesa yesterday on business connected with the Indian department in the Salt River valley and at the same time had a look at his home property in Mesa. Mr. Hughes always keeps a home in Mesa; for he may not hold a life position on the reservation.

PHIL CONLEY AT HOME.

Phil Conley, who has been absent since last summer, arrived in Mesa this week from San Diego, and will remain at home for some time to come. Mr. Conley owns property in Mesa, and plans to hold it for his permanent home. Phil has no one but himself to occupy the home; but he is young and has hopes.

SOLD THE APPLES.

John Lazarre, who recently came from Strawberry with a load of fine apples grown in that section, has disposed of his goods and started yesterday on the return trip to the high lands.

PREPARING TO BUILD.

Charles Garner, who owns a tract of land four miles east on the Roosevelt road, was in town yesterday making arrangements to have a neat bungalow erected on his place.

STRANGERS IN TOWN.

At the Alhambra—John Caylo and wife, Desvitt Wise, Los Angeles; Miss Etta Norton, Miss Nellie Tufts, Phoenix; Miss Grace Tufts, O. M. Tufts, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Rowe, W. J. Lemble, California.

WILL INSTALL OFFICERS.

Damon Lodge, No. 19, will install officers for the ensuing six months, on Monday night.

HANDSOME CALENDERS.

Among the many handsome calendars given out by the Mesa merchants and business men this season, that issued by the Salt River Valley bank is deserving of notice. It is a farm scene, from the original painting by Edward Lamour, and is entitled "End of the Day." The reproduction is worthy of framing and preservation; it is a work of art in itself.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Harry Mosbarger and family were in from their ranch ten miles out, and report the people all busy in that section. A slight rainfall occurred there on Friday, but not enough to start the grass. Bricklaying has been commenced on the new Mahoney building, which will be occupied as a bakery and also as headquarters for the Mesa Commercial club. A social ball and banquet was given at K. P. hall last night. The banquet room was handsomely decorated with wreaths of oak leaves and evergreens, the lights shaded by red paper, giving a crimson tint to the table and furnishings. Strips of red paper marked the plate sections. The Lesueur Co. put in all of Friday night taking stock. The proprietors, as well as the bookkeepers and clerks took part in the work. Rev. Bertram R. Cocks of Phoenix will hold services at the Episcopal church at 11 o'clock this morning. All are invited.

D. B. Hanna, vice president of the Canadian Northern, states that the line from Montreal to the Pacific coast will be completed by January 1, 1914. Construction work is progressing rapidly on the surveyed sections between Montreal and Port Arthur and, between a point on the western boundary of Alberta to the Pacific coast.

Mr. J. A. McDonald, the Phoenix sign-painter, has been busy this week erecting and decorating a large sign board, which he designates as the "Glendale Bulletin." The board is ten by twenty-four feet and is spaced to represent most of the prominent businesses of the town. It is located opposite the station in easy view of both trains and street cars.

About Phoenix People

It is usually the most notable feature of the absence of bachelors in prominent places. They get out and play society, inviting all the old members who were once proud of the same bachelor but who yielded to the smiles of women and passed out, and these with their wives and the buds, blossoms and courtly cavaliers of society in general foregather at their dances and their dinners. But Friday night it was different. Only Simon pure bachelors were allowed, except of course Ned Crighton and A. R. Crighton, and in respect of them, like Postum cereal and the late election, there's a reason. Mr. Crighton was first president of the club when it was organized many, many years ago and he is the only one who retained his membership after marriage—the only real bachelor who has a wife and baby, is proud of it and has a right to be. The others all slipped out except by an honorary affiliation. Mr. Crighton by virtue of his honors and office sat at the head of the table in a private dining room of the hotel, and acted as host of the occasion. Mr. Gatter was the only other married man present and he came as an invited guest and not as a bachelor, merely to ornament the other end of the table and maintain its equilibrium. The dinner was a magnificent one just such a repeat as could be secured nowhere except at the Hotel Adams and under the personal direction of Albert Widmaier, official master of such ceremonies. The decorations were most artistic and the menu inviting. Notable among the former was a favor at each plate a token of love and friendship of Paterfamilias. Crighton. The favor was a plaster figure of "Joy" an artistic conception that bears a family resemblance to Billiken. The evening was not devoted solely to gastronomic indulgence for much was provided to sharpen the wits and appeal to the risibilities. The historic resources of the new Galey Comedy Co. were called upon very effectively and produced a hearty response. Manager J. K. Gerhart was in attendance with several of his leading fun makers including Duncan McQuire who gave a double Dutch monologue and song; Young Duncan who made a good impression; Leo Moran who sang a song so well he had to sing it over and over until they all learned it; Jack Wells who sang English and Italian character songs and A. M. Zinn the director of the company's orchestra. The banquet was under the general charge of a committee consisting of E. P. Conway, Foster Rockwell and W. M. Fickas, who overlooked nothing in the arrangements. The members of the club and invited guests present, beside the actor folk were: W. E. Carpenter, C. W. Isham, S. K. Baker, W. M. Fickas, R. M. Penabody, Milton Munger, Foster Rockwell, Don Green, Alexander Baker, Harry Horbey, Roy Murray, Fred Humphrey, E. P. Holmquist, M. M. McCord, E. P. Conway, F. D. Angel, Winsor Day, Sims Ely Jr., Joseph Casson, Keith Pickrell, Charles McCarthy, Ned Crighton, A. R. Gatter, A. G. Keating, Harry Welch, Benno Neil, Sidney Osborn, Cass Redewill.

PERSONAL MENTION.
Miss Jennie Lawhead is suffering from an infected hand. It seems that she had the misfortune to burn herself a few days ago and then the further bad luck to break the blister and get dirt into the wound.

Mr. Frank J. Blount of Phoenix was in town representing Mr. W. H. Slaughter in the latter's farm loans. Mr. Flock took the Overland men out to Peoria today to repair the telephone line.

Mr. R. L. Fuller has obtained the services of Ed Yates, the expert buggy and carriage finisher, to renovate his running stock in the Glendale Livery.

Miss Haltrman of Phoenix is the guest of Mrs. Van Sine. Mrs. Brown spent the day as the guest of Mrs. M. C. Merriam. Mrs. D. G. Humm was the recipient of a beautiful belated Christmas present today. Her mother, Mrs. J. F. Brink of DuBois, Pennsylvania, was the donor and the gift was a mahogany "Vough" piano, arranged for both high and low pitch. The piano was accompanied by a combination bench and cabinet also in mahogany. Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Browster of Chayer, Kansas, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Collins, have left Glendale on an extended camping trip, which will include as points of interest: Tempe, Mesa, Granite Reef and Roosevelt.

A NEW ARRIVAL.
Mr. A. W. Bennett is passing about the cigars tonight upon the arrival of a new nine-pound girl. The new-comer was born at seven o'clock this evening. Both the mother and child are getting along well.

A BEQUEST TO THE LUCKY FINDER.

There is no limit to the vagaries of the testator. Not long ago a Herne Hill gardener, who had been thrown out of work, was reading to his family from a Bible he had bought some time before in a second-hand shop in Camberwell, when he came across a couple of £5 notes between two carefully pasted leaves. With them was the following inscription, written in red ink: "I gathered this money with great difficulty, but having no relative who is in absolute need, I make the whosoever shall read this Bible to be my heir."—London Chronicle.

THE PROFESSOR'S WIFE.
The professor is in the laboratory conducting some chemical experiments. The professor expects to go down to posterity.
(From the laboratory) "Br-r-r, Bang!"
The Visitor—I hope the professor hasn't gone.—Hartem Life.

NOT AN IRREPARABLE LOSS.
Regardless of the fact that now all young women are students of domestic science and that all brides are accomplished housekeepers, a writer in Harper's Weekly ventures to tell this story of a young bride who was especially eager to put into practice the lessons that she had taken in cooking.

Returning home one evening, her husband found her in tears. Between sobs she managed to let him know that something horrible had happened.
"It does seem too awful," she said, "that the very first meat pie I made for you should be eaten by the cat!"
"Well, never mind, dearest," said her husband cheerfully, patting her on the shoulder. "We can get another cat easy enough."—Youth's Companion.

SUITED HER AS HE WAS.
"I hope he'll reform when you are married," remarked a young lady to a friend who was engaged.
"I don't," was the response.

ENJOYABLE OUTING.
Under the chaperonage of Miss Richardson a party of Glendale young people enjoyed a picnic to Squaw Peak today. In the number were included: the Misses Josephine and Helen Hammels, Marie and Bernice McClaughry, Leah Bennett, and Maud Ross; the Messrs. Vinton Hammels, Harold and Clarence Ehrwig, and William, Carl and Charlie Bennett. Such is the reputation of the originators of the scheme, the Misses Josephine Hammels and Bernice McClaughry, for arranging for good times as providing good things to eat that the writer feels sure of saying everyone enjoyed himself.

NEWCOMERS FOR THE WINTER.
Mr. Harlan Moss, wife and daughter Mary registered at the Glendale Hotel last night. They have come from Chicago to enjoy the mild winter. Today they are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Tuttle, in a short time they will take up residence on the Wilson ranch, earns.

"I know that," said the prospective wife, "but he spends it on me!"—Stray Stories.

RETURNED FROM CALEXICO.
Mrs. Laura Payson and her son have spent Christmas and part of the holidays with the former's daughter, Mrs. John Gump. It is of interest to the people of Glendale to know that Mr. and Mrs. Gump are in excellent health and spirits.

FAMILY REUNION.
Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Furrey are giving a dinner tomorrow to the members of their family. Among those present will be: Walter Furrey and family, Mr. Frank Weigold and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tribel, and the Misses Clara and Emma Godes.

REGISTERED AT THE GLENWOOD.
Mrs. Blackman and Mrs. Brown of Humbolt, Kansas.

CHURCH NEWS.
At the Baptist church today services are as usual: Sunday school, 9:30 A. M.; preaching, 11:00 A. M.; B. Y. P. U., 7:00 P. M.; preaching, 8:00 P. M. Reverend Cressley, pastor.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFER.
J. L. Gant purchased from John Bonner lot 3 on Block 6.
